

3. DEPUTY CHIEF COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE

3.0.1 The Deputy Chief Commissioner's Office is required to coordinate the activities of the different Departments falling under its ambit. It also acts as a facilitator for the creation and monitoring of an educational environment taking into account the management of human resources; and development and management public policies in the fields of public infrastructure and water resources.

3.0.2 The main areas of responsibilities of the Commission are as hereunder:

- Education (Administration)
- Industrial Development
- Trade, Commerce and Licensing
- Human Resource Development Centre
- Water Resources Unit
- Public Infrastructure Department
- Mechanical Workshop
- Land Transport Services